Southworth: Bow-Loading Vessels

Two 250-passenger vessels under construction

- First one anticipated to arrive in April or May
- Second one anticipated to arrive 90 days later

Phased Launch of Fast-Ferry Service

BREMERTON

Kitsap Transit has tested a two-boat service on the Bremerton/Seattle route.

Scientists must determine if two-boat service will cause harm to the beaches in Rich Passage. They expect to deliver a report in early 2020.

KINGSTON

Finest is the primary vessel currently on the Kingston route, and Melissa Ann is the backup vessel.

In 2020 Kitsap Transit plans to return the Melissa Ann to its owner once it has received the first bow-loader.

Vessels, by Route in Future

KINGSTON/SOUTHWORTH

Both bow-loaders must be ready before Southworth service can begin.

Enetai will operate the Southworth route; Commander, the Kingston route.

If Enetai is out of service, Commander will operate the Southworth route and Finest, the Kingston route.

Southworth Dock

From Washington State Ferries 2040 Long Range Plan: Proposed addition of a second slip at Southworth in 2022-2027, potentially in partnership with Kitsap Transit, for passenger-only ferry use. Project is not funded at this point.
